

When I was a small boy we did not have to bother with garbage collectors. We fed our food scraps to the chickens, the bones to our dog and we burned our paper. My mother canned our own vegetables and fruit so we did not have to worry about the disposal of tin cans.

If you look upon some of our courts as being inferior, blame it on the Constitution (Article III, Sec 1) which reads, "The judicial power of the U. S., shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may from time to time ordain and establish."

Joggers will run formiles with no destination in mind but will jump in a car to get a loaf of bread at the corner grocery.

I would have more to pass on to my kids if I had not had kids.

Remember the good old days when there was such a thing as a cheap skate?

Save our cliffs. Hang cliff hangers.

How does one repair a joke which has been cracked?

August 2nd came and went. No mention of it in newspapers or on TV. No flags were raised. No bands played. No swelling of pride in the hearts of Americans. No memory of George Croghan's heroics stirred our patriotism.

Down with war, famine, plague and country music.

A demagogue is one who blatantly espouses positions on issues which are contrary to mine.

The Queen of England has the resources to live like a king.

If Cain had not watched so much violence on TV Abel might still be with us.

Ugh! Another presidential campaign is under way. No shortage of candidates, but...
... oh, for another Schuyler Colfax.

Contributed by a reader, one Julie Rankin:

Tonight is Halloween,
So clean your teeth with Gleem,
Don't be surprised to hear a horn,
Or the pinging of some corn,
Get some candy,
That is fine and dandy,
You'll probably hear a cat or two,
And for sure a boo.
Be ready, It's Halloween.

That gives me an idea. If each of my readers would send me a contribution I would not have to work so hard.
