

Babe Ruth was born on February 7th. I was born on February 7th. He played baseball. I played baseball. A candy bar was named for him. Where did I go wrong?

If winter had never been invented what would we do with all of the anti-freeze which Dow Chemical and E. I. Dupont produce?

One reason for increased grocery bills is the stack of National Enquirers at the check out station.

Please, won't some one tell me when Schuyler Colfax was born!

What did the Indians discover when they came to America?

I wonder if any of my tax money is being used to provide protection for Cleveland against the next ice age.

I have nothing against old people but I can not stand Senior Citizens.

What is a foot?

A foot is something that if you have 3 of them you have a yard.

When Balboa discovered the Pacific Ocean how long had it been lost?

When Southern California falls into the ocean what will become of the Tijuana merchants?

If there were no left handers, sporting goods stores would be stuck with a lot of baseball gloves.

What is a yard?

Something that has to be mowed.

Or, 3 feet. Who needs them?

If there was no such thing as corn where would we get corn cobs?

If birds could not fly how would they get out of trees?

Grandpas could run and play like little kids if they had young feet.

Who discovered weather?

I might wish for myself that I were rich and handsome and popular and famous. But for my grandchildren I wish for much more. For them, I wish for the happiness that comes from being true to those one loves, and from being true to one's self.
