

I was born in 1908. Boy Scouts was founded in 1908. People in those days were quick to recognize imminent danger and just as quick to take appropriate action.

If Sir Isaac Newton had sat under an elm tree instead of an apple tree, would we have the law of gravity?

An Xebec resembles a Felucca.

Is Schuyler Colfax doomed to anonymity?

If there were no such thing as water how would we make ice cubes?

When Happy read Nelson's will, was she happy?

Has anyone ever tested the cavity-fighting qualities of baking soda?

If the U. S. Battleship Maine had not been sunk in Havana Harbor, would we change our history books to read, "Forget The Maine"?

Kids act silly because they are young. Grandpas act silly because they are old.

The cook in my house is very tricky. Minutes after I have eaten, she asks me what I want for my next meal. She thinks I will not ask for very much because I am not hungry. I fool her. I pretend that I am hungry and order accordingly.

Caffein-free coffee is not my cup of tea.

Try this. Stand before a mirror and smile at yourself. I tried it - and laughed.

I wish that I had shoveled more snow when I was young so there would not be so much of it to shovel now.

Grandchildren are young geezers who someday will be old geezers.

If God had wanted us to have skate boards he would have put wheels on our feet. If he had put wheels on our feet, what would this have done to the guy who invented the wheel?

I would pay a good price for a burglar alarm that would sound off at least ten minutes before a burglar reached my home.

How would Montezuma react if some bungling Mexican oil driller struck pure drinking water?

While you are young, do things that will make you happy when you become old.
